Single Officer Response to Active Threat and Shooter Incidents FDLE #1402 - 16 Hours

Course Description

This training is one of the several courses that address the role of the School Resource Officer. This course is intended to prepare the SRO to respond immediately to an active shooter incident. Officers will learn the mental and technical aspects of a single officer response to an active assailant.

Topics Include:

- Psychological/Physiological Response
- Principles of Response
- The importance of Immediate Response
- Tactical Movement and Angles
- Live Fire and Practical Training Exercise
- Aftermath

Class will expose students to stress and moderate physical discomfort due to the dynamic nature of the drills and scenarios.
